

PSALM 107
BY KAREN SANKOWSKI
AUG.27TH.2017

These verse's are declaring God's providential care for the children of men; His creation. In every distress, in every hardship, in captivity, sickness, danger.

Any where man can be, any circumstance man can find himself in – God is there. Full of mercy and grace; ready to give aid to those who will call upon Him to do so.

Those of us who have been redeemed by the blood of the Lamb; have so much to thank Him for; and this is greatly expressed in Psalm 103.

God desires that we tell everyone what He has done for us. These verses are not so much a mandate to witness; but to declare that when God delivers you, shows you and teaches you- you are not able to keep these glorious experiences to yourself.

Jesus can satisfy every need, free you from the bonds of prison, restore your hope, forgive your sin, give life and immortality.

We have so much to be thankful for; like the text says: Let the redeemed of the Lord say so; whom He hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy. ....Who so is wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the loving kindness of the Lord.